

Anja Steffens is new member of the board of Engel & Völkers Capital AG

Hamburg, September 22, 2022:

The Supervisory Board of Engel & Völkers Capital AG has appointed Anja Steffens to the Management Board. In her new position as Chief Operating Officer (COO), Anja Steffens is responsible for structuring new products, portfolio management, finance and controlling. She succeeds Tomasz Kalemba, Chief Investment Officer (CIO), who is leaving the company at his own request on August 31, 2022. Anja Steffens is thus the second member of the Executive Board alongside CEO Marc Drießen.

In her career in the investment and real estate industry, Anja Steffens has been responsible for the development and structuring of products in excess of EUR 3 billion. Most recently, Steffens was Chief Product Officer at Bloxxter, a company specializing in blockchain-based real estate investments. Her previous roles included Head of Product Development Real Assets at HANSAINVEST and Managing Director of a fully licensed capital management company in Hamburg.

Robin Frenzel, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Engel & Völkers Capital AG, says: "On behalf of the entire Supervisory Board, I would like to thank Tomasz Kalemba for the work he has done and the successes he has achieved. Mr. Kalemba has taken responsibility for the company in a challenging time and has moved many projects and issues. We regret Kalemba's decision and wish him all the best for the future. With Anja Steffens, we are gaining an expert for the successful further development of our European product strategy and see ourselves in a first-class position to meet the challenges of the current market situation."

"I am very pleased to contribute my expertise for a positive company development and to continue to push forward together with known and new faces," says Anja Steffens about her new position as member of the board of Engel & Völkers Capital AG.
